The top, PRTAute, is named after the Hibiscus flower in Tahitian, and the bottom, PRTTaina, is named after the Tahitian rose flower, each reflecting her roots and story.

For several years, Vaimiti Teiefitu has been part of the Protest Sportswear team as a dedicated teamrider, bringing her unique style to every wave she rides. Born in Tahiti, she has surfed iconic waves like Teahupo'o, while her true passion lies in longboarding and riding long and flowing waves around the world.

Designed by Vaimiti herself as an athlete, with her vision and input, we created a dedicated surf capsule collection that combines performance with personal style. At its core is a 2 mm neoprene surf set, featuring a long-sleeve top and matching short bottoms, offering the perfect balance of warmth, flexibility, and freedom of movement.

Her home tradition of wearing flowers, this influence comes to life in a hand-drawn floral print, bringing a feminine yet powerful feel to the collection.

With this surf set, she aims to inspire other girls in the water to express themselves, feel confident, and embrace their own surfing journey.

"This surfsuit is mindfully inspired by my island home Tahiti, the color red representing the vibrant Hibiscus flowers with a touch of blue for the ocean where I spend most of my time. It is designed for all the women who want to feel comfy, confident and effortlessly cute in the water."

Built for the waves & inspired by her origin.

LIFESTYLE

The new men’s summer collection is a blend of cultures, symbols and creative influences, where contrast and detail come together in a natural way. Inspired by a world of references and the artistic touch of artists like Moniko Morito, the collection focuses on expression through mixed patterns, rich textures, and unexpected combinations.

The focus is on new fabrics and elevated qualities that balance comfort and character. From soft French terry to a subtle mini waffle structure, each material adds its own identity to the range. New this season are T-shirts featuring an embroidered Inca print, alongside a strong selection of embroidery styles with refined stitching details that highlight the craftsmanship throughout the collection.

Where backprints already played an important role in the previous collection, this season takes it a step further with hand-drawn artwork and playful, bold prints that give each piece a unique, expressive feel

FREEDOM TO MOVE

WHEREVER THE DAY TAKES YOU.

Shorts designed for ultimate comfort and performance.
A fabric that can stretch in every direction, giving you complete freedom of movement.
Quick-drying, durable & made to perform in and out of the water.

4 -WAY STRETCH

Our 4-way stretch pants and swim shorts are designed for ultimate comfort and performance. The stretch comes from carefully engineered fabrics, either through the construction of the material itself or by adding elastane to polyester. This allows the fabric to stretch in every direction, giving you complete freedom of movement.

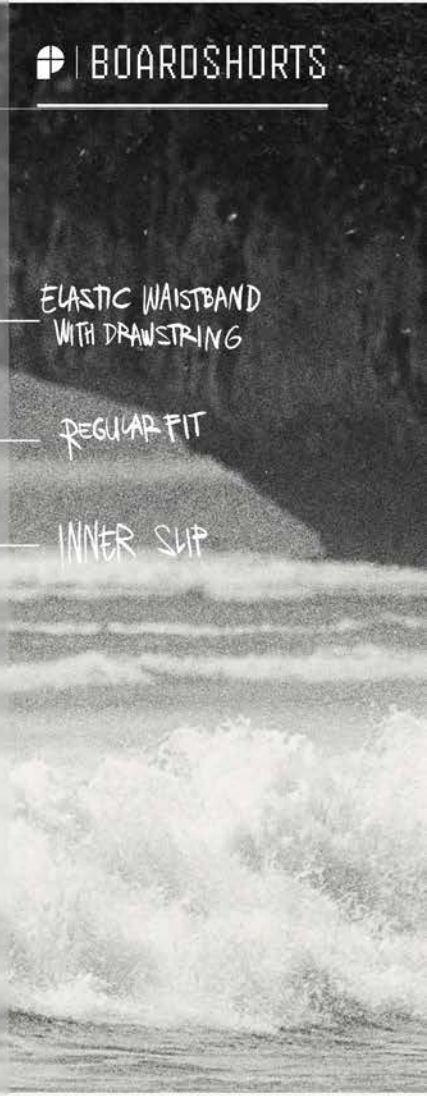
For men, this means norestrictions.

Whether you're hiking, exploring, swimming, or just on the go, these pieces move with your body instead of against it. They feel lightweight, flexible, and comfortable all day long, while still keeping their shape.

Quick-drying, durable, and made to perform in and out of the water, 4-way stretch styles are built for every moment of summer.

PRTHolden, PRTGustav, PRTHendry, PRTHunton, PRTRindl, PRTKieran, PRTKole. And the PRTBriston, the 16-inch beachshort with full elastic waistband which is also added as a new Protest Icon.

BOARDSHORTS



Our boardshorts are specially designed for surfing and watersports. Built for performance and comfort, they feature a longer fit to prevent the shorts from riding up during movement, while the stretch fabric allows maximum freedom and flexibility in the water. A secure waistband with lace closure keeps the shorts firmly in place, even during intense sessions and heavy waves.
